

Introduction

1. After the united kingdom, due to Solomon's wickedness, the kingdom became divided between the northern kingdom of Israel, and the southern kingdom of Judah (1 Kgs. 11:1-12:24)
 - a. Jeroboam was the first king over the northern kingdom of Israel, and he perverted worship (1 Kgs. 12:25-33)
 - i. He was a wicked king (1 Kgs. 13:1-14:20)
 - b. Nadab, Jeroboam's son, reigned next (1 Kgs. 14:20)
 - i. He was a wicked king (1 Kgs. 15:25-26)
 - c. Baasha reigned next (1 Kgs. 15:27-30)
 - i. He was a wicked king (1 Kgs. 15:33-34)
 - d. Elah, Baasha's son, reigned next (1 Kgs. 16:6)
 - i. He was a wicked king (1 Kgs. 16:8-13)
 - e. Zimri, Elah's servant, reigned next (1 Kgs. 16:10)
 - i. He was a wicked king (1 Kgs. 16:15-19)
 - f. Omri reigned next (1 Kgs. 16:21-24)
 - i. He was a wicked king (1 Kgs. 16:25-26)
 - g. Ahab, Omri's son, reigned next (1 Kgs. 16:28-29)
 - i. He was a really wicked king (1 Kgs. 16:30-33)
2. It is during the reign of Ahab, that we find the prophet Elijah doing his prophetic work (1 Kgs. 17)
 - a. Some prophets were writing and speaking prophets (e.g., Jeremiah, Isaiah, Ezekiel) and some were just speaking prophets (e.g., Elijah, Elisha, Micaiah)
 - b. Elijah was a holy man of God (2 Pt. 1:20-21)

I. The Widow and Her Son

1. The power of prayer
 - a. 1 Kgs. 17:1; Jm. 5:17
 - i. Famine was one of the four ways in which God judged nations (Eze. 14:21)
 - b. 1 Kgs. 17:17-24; Jm. 5:13-16
2. The power of providence (1 Kgs. 17:2-16)

- a. God provides for the reverent (Ps. 111:5, 34:9-10)

II. Showdown on Mount Carmel

1. The troubler of Israel (1 Kgs. 18:1-19)
 - a. Note the contrast between Obadiah and Ahab/Jezebel (1 Kgs. 18:3-4)
2. Baal versus the LORD (1 Kgs. 18:20-40)
 - a. Only two options: the LORD or not the LORD (1 Kgs. 18:21)
 - i. Jesus said as much (Mt. 6:24, 12:30)
 - b. If we are on the LORD's side we are in the majority (1 Kgs. 18:22)
 - i. Paul understood that (Rm. 8:31)
 - ii. As did the Hebrews writer (Heb. 13:6)
 - iii. As did John (1 Jn. 4:4)
 - c. Reverence was achieved (1 Kgs. 18:38-39)

III. The Mount of Transfiguration

1. Three accounts (Mt. 17:1-13; Mk. 9:2-13; Lk. 9:28-36)
 - a. The reverent speak often to one another (Mt. 17:3; Mk. 9:4; Lk. 9:30-31; Mal. 3:16)
2. Elijah typified the prophets
 - a. A prophet was an inspired spokesman for God (2 Pt. 1:20-21; 1 Sam. 9:9; Ex. 4:14-16, 7:1-2)
 - b. Note Elijah's connection with John and Jesus (Mt. 11:11-14; Lk. 1:17; Mt. 16:13-14)

Conclusion

1. Elijah was a great man of God
 - a. He illustrated the power of prayer and providence
 - b. He stood up for God on Mount Carmel
 - c. He was present on the Mount of Transfiguration
2. He was one of only two individuals thus far that never physically died (2 Kgs. 2:1-11)
 - a. Enoch being the only other one (Gen. 5:24; Heb. 11:5-6)
 - b. These two men are the type of what will happen when the Lord returns for the faithful (1 Th. 4:16-17)